

Signwriter & installer

This position calls for an applicant with experience in installation of all types of signage including large scale hoardings, sign builds, property development suites and support signage, shop fit-outs and business branding.

A normal work day may entail basic metal fabrication and installation, site inspections, vinyl decal and digital print installation, working from heights either independently or with a team of our highly trained installers, as well as construction of high quality timber hoardings.

Holding some or all of the following qualifications/characteristics would be a distinct advantage:

- Flexible working hours
- Truck licence (medium rigid)
- EWP Certification
- Blue card
- Strong communication & problem solving skills
- Sense of humour
- Solid work ethic

Our successful applicant will be rewarded with the opportunity of working within one of Brisbane's leading large format signage companies with an enviable reputation for our client service, product quality and work culture. You will be required to have $20 million public liability insurance, be set up as a company and have a reliable working vehicle.
