This 6m x 3m panel is located to the left of the Bruce Highway and faces traffic travelling northbound to Gladstone.

Gladstone, with its natural deep water harbour, is a stepping stone to the southern section of the Great Barrier Reef, one of Australia's most popular tourist attractions, which makes Gladstone a popular destination and major business centre.

This site is an ideal opportunity for quality exposure leading into one of Queensland's main centres and the heavily trafficked Tannum Sands and Boyne Island area.

Nearby: Approximately 8kms south of Gladstone
