Albion Station is just three stops from Brisbane Central Station and one of Brisbane's designated inner urban development hubs. Over the next couple of years, Albion Station will be transformed into 'The Mill'; a residential and commercial precinct, with retail, restaurants, bars and a supermarket. Albion Station is also in close proximity to the increasingly popular Albion dining precinct. This panel is located on the northern end of the city bound platform. NetRail billboards reach a time rich and entertainment poor audience, who on average wait 9 minutes for their train, with minimal competition for advertising messages on the platform.

Restrictions: No Political, Religious or Adult Entertainment advertising. Daily Passenger Movements: 2143
